

GOVERNMENT OF PUDUCHERRY
CO-OPERATIVE DEPARTMENT

Puducherry, the 28/4/18

CIRCULAR

Sub: Conduct of election to co-operative societies - Indication of scheduled caste and weaker section member in the voters list - Instructions - Issued.

The co-operative societies in the Union territory of Puducherry are conducting elections to the committee of management. The primary agricultural credit societies with the membership not exceeding 500 shall reserve two seats on the committee for being filled up by representatives of members belonging to weaker sections. Similarly, the primary co-operative societies other than student co-operative stores have to provide the reservation for the members belonging to scheduled caste in the committee of management, as provided in the bye-laws.

2. If the societies have not divided constituencies for conduct of election to the committee of management, they shall indicate the names of the members belonging to scheduled caste or weaker section, as the case may be, specifically by suffixing SC or WS in the preliminary and final voter list.

3. If constituencies have been divided for the purpose of conduct of election, only in the constituency where scheduled caste or weaker section members are to be elected to the committee, the societies shall suffix SC or WS along with the names of the members belonging to scheduled caste or weaker section, as the case may be, in the preliminary and final voter list.

4. The status of scheduled caste and weaker section may be made based on the records available with the society.

5. These instructions shall be followed scrupulously.
